

University of Perugia - I PERUGIA01 - Ph.D Programs

The University of Perugia strongly promotes 17 Ph.D. programs. Each program has a reserved scholarship for foreigner students. All activities are run in English, and knowledge of Italian language is not required.

We therefore kindly invite you to disseminate this information among all your students seeking for a post-lauream education. A description of the Ph.D. programs is available at the link:

<http://www.unipg.it/en/courses/phd-program>

The scholarship amount is € 13.638,47 per year, for three years. Furthermore, the scholarship is increased up to 50% of the scholarship itself for periods spent abroad. For the second and third year is also available a budget of € 1363,84 p/year for research and mobility activities.

The call for PhD positions and scholarships will be published from June 2017 at the above link.

For preliminary information on the documents to apply for the reserved scholarship, please send an email to: ufficio.dottorati@unipg.it
